

CMBA

Web Tech Committee

Committee Mission Statement

The result of the merger of the Internet and Technology Committees, The Web Tech Committee recognizes that information is the hottest commodity of the new millennium. The goal of the committee will be to investigate present and future information technology as it pertains to mortgage banking. This will include maintaining and enhancing the CMBA Website, improve the usage of technology within the CMBA office and by all the committees and to provide continued educational forums to keep the committee members and the association membership informed of future technology advances in our industry.
